

Mobilization of the Orange Group following the earthquake in Morocco

Orange stands in solidarity with Morocco following the earthquake that hit the country on the night of 8 to 9 September 2023. The Group has mobilized across its entire global footprint to provide specific offers designed to support the affected populations and Orange's teams in Morocco by facilitating communications.

In France, consumer mobile customers of Orange* and Sosh will benefit from free calls from 10pm tonight (Sunday, 9 September) from France to Moroccan mobiles and landlines. Sending SMS/MMS messages will also be free. These solidarity offers will be valid until 16 September 2023 inclusive.

In Europe, all Orange subsidiaries have announced that voice and SMS communications to Morocco will be free for up to a week depending on the country. In Africa and the Middle East, the Group has introduced similar specific offers across its entire 18-country footprint.
